The Golden Globes is one of the biggest nights for Hollywood. But, that night can be a long one. With hours of glam prep, sitting through the actual ceremony, and attending after-parties that go into the wee hours of the morning, many stars opt to book a room in one of Tinseltown's luxury hotels. Here are some of the A-lister's favorites.

AKA Beverly Hills

For actors who truly want a home away from home, they check in to AKA Beverly Hills. The suites are situated like apartments with full kitchens, bedrooms, living and dining areas. There are even townhouses that come with private access. But, just because it's set up like a luxury apartment complex, doesn't mean the property comes without some luxurious hotel amenities. Stars can have fresh groceries delivered to their rooms or private access to Spago.
